FOREWORD

Life at Pikeville College from the long registration line in September to the last final exam in June cannot possibly be revealed in a simple book. For each individual here, the story is different, but some things will always be familiar to us . . . the campus chats, the crowded cafeteria, and the search for knowledge.

The 1963 Highlander has tried to recapture a few of these familiar moments for you, hoping that they will recall to you at least part of the spirit of Pikeville College.

From time to time something new is added to Pikeville College. The past two years have brought us many new buildings: the Record-Memorial Building, the Student Union Building, Memorial Hall and Condit Hall.

We enjoy the beauty, excitement, and challenge of the new, with the quiet comfort of the old, because this is our education and, THIS IS OUR COLLEGE.

Reflections of the Hill

Pikeville College reflections—

There are many of these:

Voices from the classrooms,

Winds whistling through the trees;

Shadows lurking in the halls,

Standing quietly there,

Waiting for the bell to ring,

Before they climb the stair.

Doors opened, doors closed,

Students hurrying to and fro!

Noisy halls and happy calls,

Lost things searched for high and low.

Devotions, flag, announcements,

They always start our day;

We study first hour's lessons,

Then to classes on our way.

A multitude of noises:

Strains of music, hums of saws,

Bubbling test tubes, hurrying feet,

Conjugations, rules and laws.

Thinking of the days we've spent

Of learning on this Hill,

We bind all our thoughts together

For you to read at will.

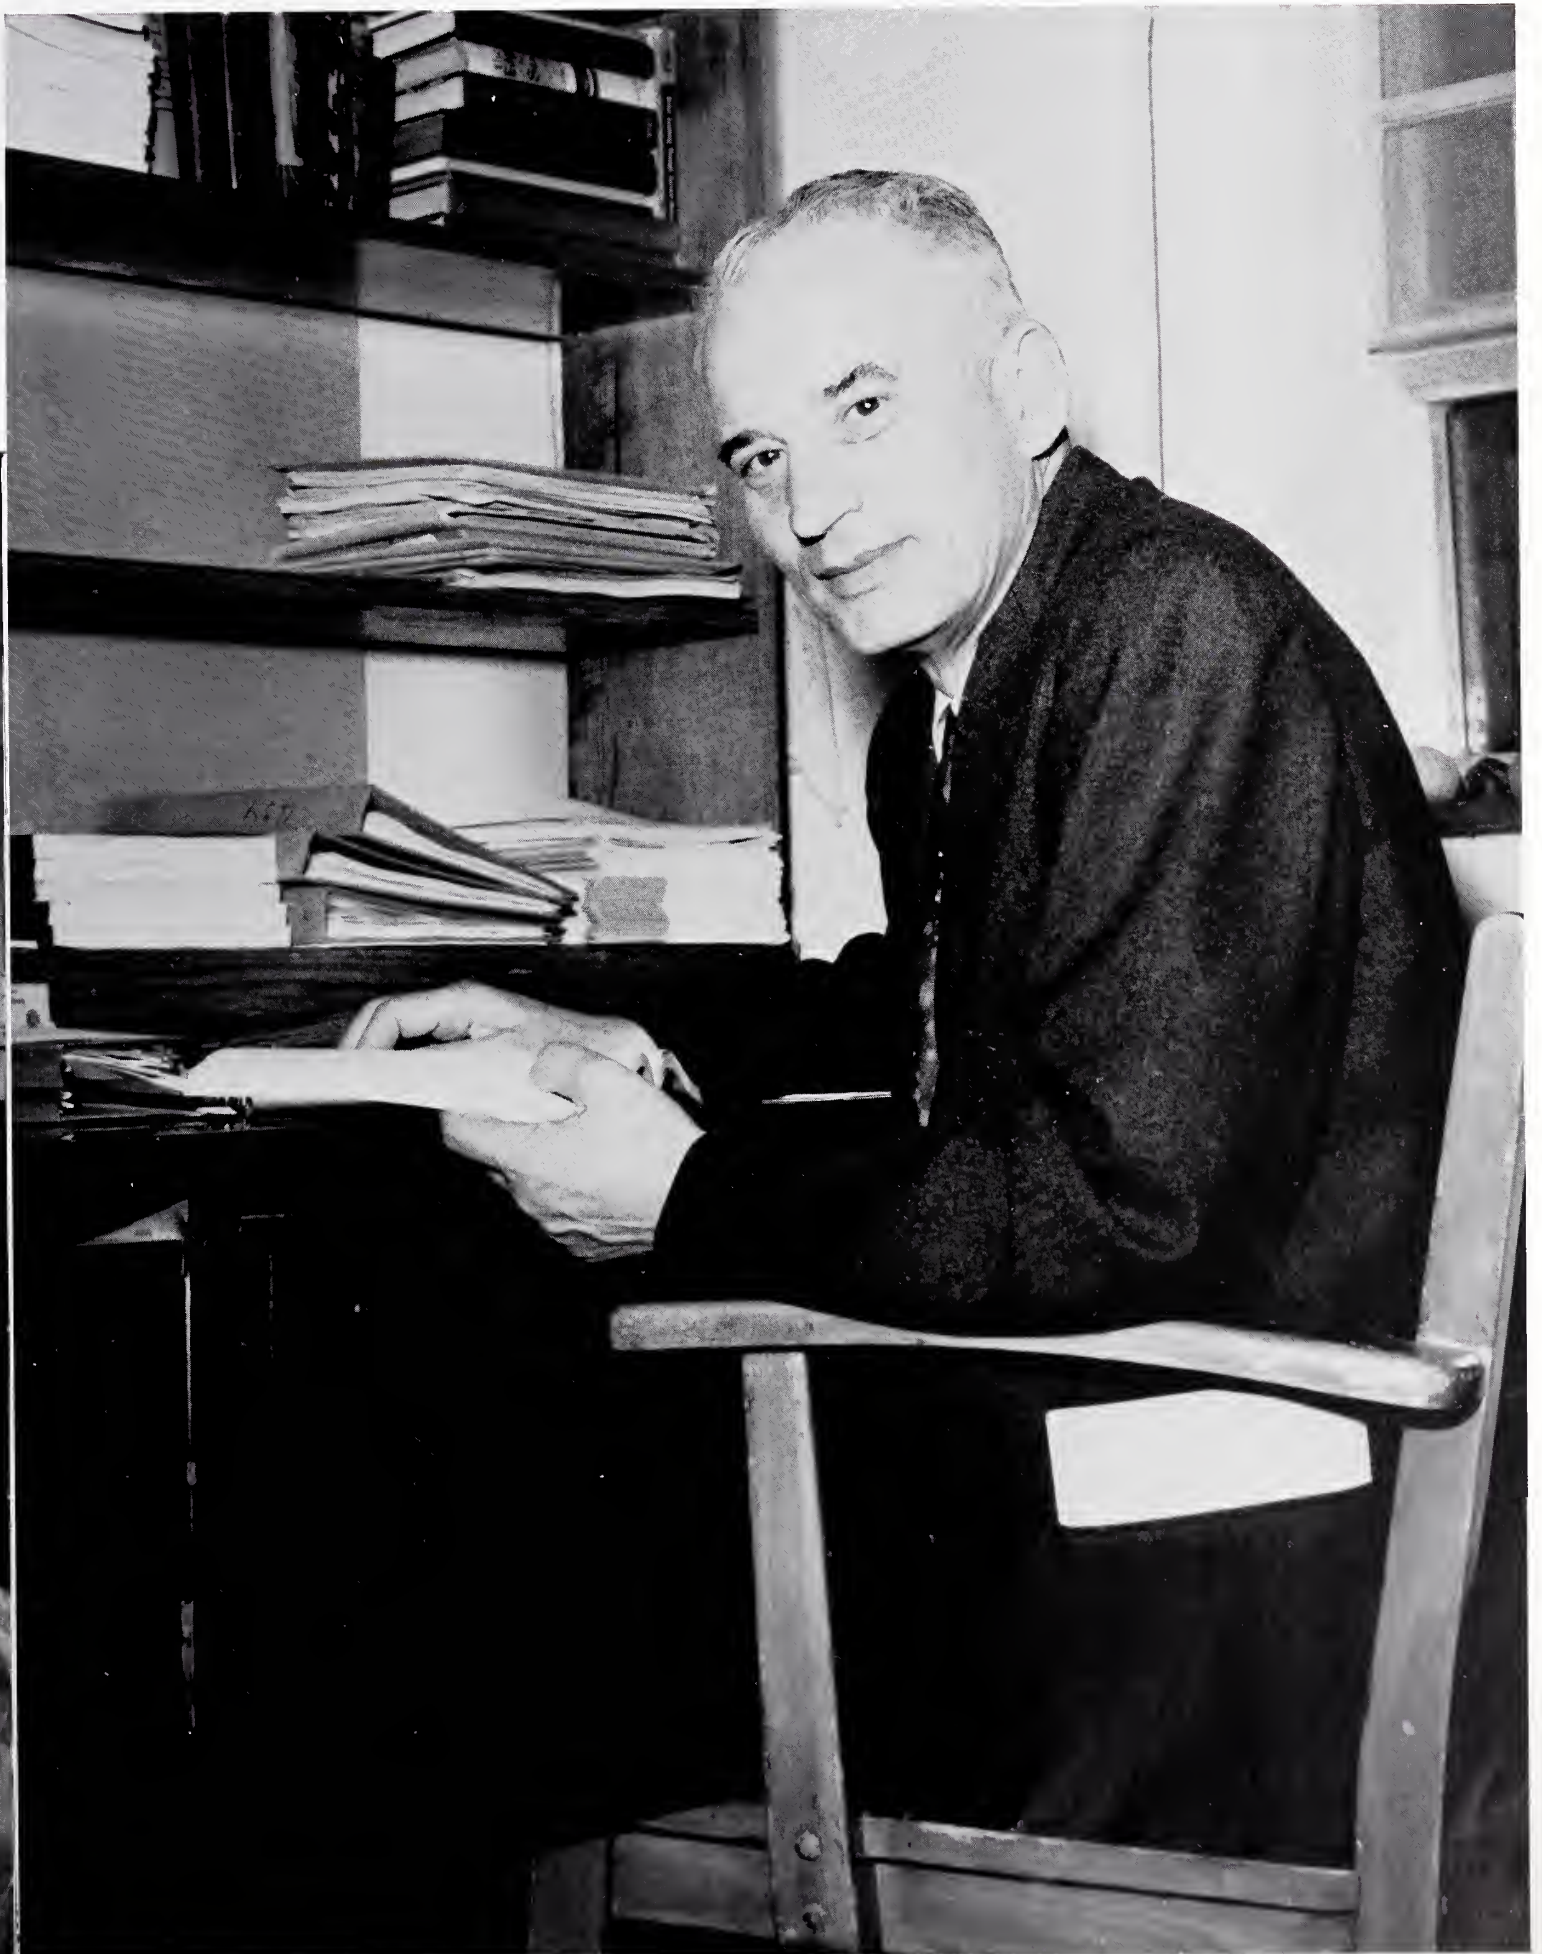

FACULTY AND

The faculty and administration of Pikeville College are well endowed with much talent and many years of experience. They have combined their talents and abilities not only to teach subject matter but also to include:

Wisdom	Seriousness
Integrity	Humor
Firmness	Interest.

ADMINISTRATION

It is with sincere regret that we as a faculty and student body say farewell to Dr. Page, but we are pleased that he will still be working for the college in the field of public relations.

Our prayers will go with him and his wife in their "Retirement?"

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE HELPED MAKE OUR COLLEGE

The success of any organization is determined by its experienced and capable leadership. The administrative staff of Pikeville College has its share of both. Although these people are in the background, they are a vital part of our campus life and activities. It would be impossible for anyone to become a student at Pikeville College if it were not for our administrative staff.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

Dr. Raymond Bradley, Chairman

The chief aim of Pikeville College is to produce qualified teachers for the American educational system. Since more than 80% of the Pikeville College graduates become teachers, the Division of Education is the most important division of campus.

At no other college is there a better qualified leader to direct the Division of Education than Dr. Raymond Bradley. Dr. Bradley has dedicated his entire life to education. He is a member of many honorary educational societies and at present is acting president of Pikeville College.

The Division of Education offers majors in secondary and elementary education, physical education and a minor in Psychology. These courses of study carry with them teacher certification.

The Division of Education sponsors two clubs on campus, S. N. E. A. and W. A. A. The S. N. E. A. is an organization for future teachers while the W. A. A. is a women's activity club on campus.

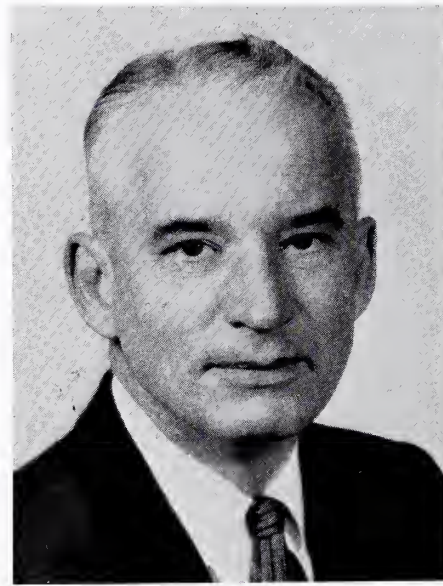

We welcome Max M. Miller and Clara Walsh to our faculty and hope that their stay is very pleasant. It is always nice to acquire new and interesting teachers for our faculty.

The Division is well endowed with capable and seasoned leadership in Dr. Anna Miller. Dr. Miller's entire life has been dedicated to the field of English and education. Under her are many talented and experienced cohorts who also are dedicated to their fields.

The Parnassus Club which is sponsored by the Division of Humanities is a club for all English majors and minors. The club strives to increase within the student a better understanding and love for good literature.

We welcome Olive Sarber, William Smith and Marion Kelley to our faculty. May their years on our faculty be happy and rewarding.

DIVISION OF RELIGION AND PHILOSOPHY

Dr. Wray Miller, Chairman

The Division of Religion and Philosophy is our smallest division, but this does not mean, however, that it is a weak division. Dr. Wray Miller has proven his abilities many times by his many years of service in the field of religion and education.

The Division of Religion and Philosophy offers a minor in Religion and four years of work leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Pre-Theology.

The Division of Religion and Philosophy sponsors our student Vespers and Student Christian Fellowship. All students are encouraged to participate in these activities because the College feels spiritual development is as important as the physical, academic and social. Unless all these facets are nurtured, the student does not become a well rounded individual.

Dr. Neil Houk, Religion

DIVISION OF SCIENCE

The Division of Sciences is divided into Biology, Chemistry, and Mathematics with majors in Biology and Mathematics and minors in Biology, Mathematics, and Chemistry.

Dr. E. E. Stanford is greatly responsible for the success of the Division. He is the author of our present Biology textbook and he spent many years at the College of the Pacific before coming to Pikeville College in 1959.

The Nature Club is sponsored by the Division for all Biology majors and minors. The club strives to increase the student's understanding of biological concepts.

Pikeville College is proud to have such a man as Dr. Charles M. Knapp as chairman of the Division of Social Studies. Dr. Knapp spent many years at the University of Kentucky and at the time of his retirement was head of the Department there.

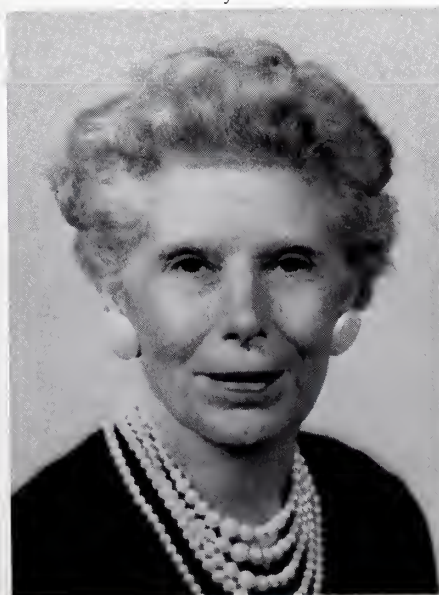

We welcome this year Dr. Edwin Kingsbury to our faculty. Dr. Kingsbury is one of the few people who are specialists in the field of Cuneiform Studies.

The Division of Social Studies offers majors in History, History and Political, Science, General Business, and Secretarial Science and also minors in these same fields.

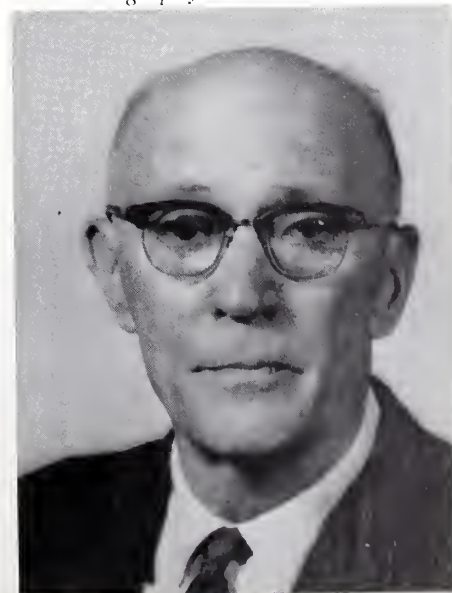

The Commerce Department of the Division of Social Studies sponsors the Business Club for all commerce majors and minors. The club was organized to give the students a better understanding of business functions.

HIGHLANDER

The HIGHLANDER staff has worked hard to make this a better yearbook, and their labor has proven successful, for this is the best (or one of the best) yearbooks Pikeville College has seen.

We hope you enjoy the HIGHLANDER and if you see ways in which it can be improved make a note and it will be considered.

The HIGHLANDER staff hopes that you get as much pleasure out of reading this annual as they have had putting it together.

A Step Forward

Pikeville College recently chose to initiate a Dean's List into its program. A standard of grades was set up whereby any student who attains a certain grade level will be honored as an outstanding student.

Students who study diligently should receive some sort of recognition for their efforts. True, they are rewarded by an increase in knowledge and good grades, but there needs to be public recognition and honor, as well.

This program serves not only to recognize outstanding students but to provide initiative for other students to attain the same level.

Two Groups Visit Pike Churches

On Sunday, November 11, two groups of Pikeville College representatives presided at church services in two Pike County churches.

At the First Presbyterian Church in Morehead, the group was led by Rev. James Smith, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian Church of Berkeley, California, to describe his opinion of Pikeville College during its Spiritual Emphasis Week, which ended on Saturday evening, November 9.

Mr. Smith, who was the leader of the group during the week, said that although he had no direct contact with the college, he found that several students and faculty members had shared faith with him at various places, now he has found the kind of faith which is suitable for grades.

At a meeting held on November 6, plans were made for the fair, which will be held at the college.

The Evangelist for the rest of the weekend will be Mr. Tommy Madon, of Harlan County. Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky. Tor

But the control problem on rats is relatively simple. For one, a cleaned-up farm (refuse, trash, loose grain, and feed) is not a happy home for the average rat. Second, there are so many good, effective rat baits on the market that no farmer should be overly troubled with the rodents.
